

CERTIFICATE OF TESTING

This confirms in-house certification

IN-HOUSE CERTIFICATION

We are committed to the welfare of employees and visitors to this site and have instigated this testing initiative. As a result of this policy an in-house audit of employee welfare standards was completed on the 8th Nov 2011.

As part of this process we hereby certify that the audit has been carried out to the standards laid out by Complete Supply Solutions Ltd for in-house certification as explained in the self audit health & safety and business checklist.

In line with company policy all test results are available from your Health & Safety department.
